

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There will be services at all of the churches today.

Judge H. N. Alexander yesterday moved his office to over the Hartford Bank.

Tonight Samuel P. Putnam will lecture upon the subject of "Religious Conspiracy."

J. W. Slankard raffled off his fine saddle horse at Butler & Kelley's saloon last night. Thomas Bryant was the lucky man.

Marshall Blankenship yesterday auctioned off the balance of the assigned jewelry stock of P. F. Neilson, purchased by M. Kalisher.

Wm. A. Bondurant started this morning with his ten-mile team loaded with supplies for Bondurant's placer camp and Whipsaw Gulch mines.

The Fruit Growers' Association held an important and interesting meeting yesterday. Reports of committees on what and how to plant were received, and a number of essays on the subject of fruit culture in the Salt River Valley were read.

Yesterday was a very circus day on the street. All the town turned out to see Prof. W. A. Davidson walk the tight rope. The performance was truly wonderful. The man walking lobbied by a handkerchief the whole length of the rope and backwards, besides other equally as extraordinary feats. The medicine men captured the crowd immediately after the rope walking performance with their balloon ascension.

PERSONAL.

Judge William Lovell, of Tucson, came over on yesterday's train.

Harry Carpenter, secretary of the Territorial Prison, is in the city.

Assemblyman Hoff, of Pima, went home by this morning's train and will return tomorrow.

L. P. Coble yesterday received word that his brother, Geo. W., is improving in health very rapidly at the Castle Creek Springs.

AROUND PINE RIDGE.

Preparing to Leave the Sioux in Their Blissful Solitude.

PINE RIDGE, January 24.—All persons not regularly employed about the agency are ordered to leave the reservation. General Miles is holding daily talks with various Indian chiefs with a view to selecting ten of them to go to Washington. The sick and wounded members of the Seventh Cavalry have been forwarded to Rushville where they will travel with their regiment to Fort Riley. The troops of the Second Regiment returned to Omaha and the Nineteenth Infantry to Cheyenne this morning. General Miles expects to leave here in a few days and take with him about fifty Brule Indians whom he will quarter at Fort Sheridan, Chicago.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—A telegram was received from General Miles today, giving an account of the killing of the Indian, Few Tails, by citizens. He characterized the incident as a useless outrage and said steps had been taken for the prosecution of the assassin. The telegram was shown to the President and a telegram sent Miles inquiring whether or not the outrage was committed on the Government reservation and whether the assassins are members of any State organization. The object is to determine the question of jurisdiction.

Orders have been issued from the War Department for the First Infantry, Colonel Shafter, to return to their former stations on the Pacific Coast.

MORE INDIAN TROUBLE.

Reported From the Red Lake Reservation in Minnesota.

CROOKSTON, Minn., January 24.—An outbreak is reported to have taken place among the Indians at Red Lake reservation. A number of settlers arrived today reported having been driven out by Indians who, they say, have caught the Mesquias and are indulging in ghost dances and threatening the white settlers near the reservation. Many settlers have already left their homes. The Adjutant-General is investigating.

MINNEAPOLIS, January 24.—A special to the Tribune from Fergus Falls, Minn., says: The militia received orders today to be in readiness to move at a minute's notice to Red Lake Indian reservation. The Chippewas are indulging in ghost dances and other excitement.

Morgan Courts Investigation.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Commissioner Morgan, of the Indian Bureau, has written a letter to Father Cagle, the Catholic priest wounded in the battle near Pine Ridge Agency, asking him, in view of his writings to religious newspapers, to formally prefer charges against him (Morgan), so that a thorough investigation can be made.

Improving the Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Chairman Barrows from the House Committee on Levees and Improvement of the Mississippi river, today submitted to the House a favorable report on the bill drafted by the committee appropriating $1,000,000 to repair and build levees on the Mississippi from the head of the passes to Cairo.

Money for the Crow Indians.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, has introduced in the House a bill appropriating $946,000 to ratify and confirm the agreement with the Crow Indians of Montana.

A Hermit Murdered.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., January 24.—The body of William Hornman, who has been living the life of a hermit in a squalid hut near Argentine, Kansas, was found there today, evidently murdered. He was known to have had a lot of money, some placing the amount as high as $200,000, but no trace of it can be found.

SENATOR INGALLS' CHANCES.

Conducting a Lively Campaign in His Effort for Re-election.

TOPEKA, January 24.—A general memorial, from Lincoln Post, Grand Army of the Republic, praying for the reelection of Ingalls, was reported back by the committee today with the recommendation that it be spread upon the minutes. As an offset to it, a number of old soldiers today presented a petition condemning Ingalls. This was also spread on the records. Ingalls, who arrived last night, was in conference all day today with the Republican managers. The first caucus of the Farmers' Alliance members on the Senatorial question is being held tonight. The members are pledged to secrecy and little is yet learned of the proceedings. The Alliance candidates were before the caucus, one by one, and permitted to give a statement for their candidacy. At 12:30 there had been no nomination, and the proceedings are still being kept secret.

tion, and the proceedings are still being kept secret.

A mass meeting, tonight, was held in the interest of Ingalls' reelection. Several prominent men spoke in favor of Ingalls' reelection. When Ingalls came to the platform, he was given an ovation. In his speech he said whether he be defeated or elected, no matter who the adversaries, "I shall respond to the challenge of the insolent opposition to the Grand Army of the Republic. Should I go down, I shall see there is not a maimed or crippled soldier who shall not feel he has lost a defender."

THE FIRE RECORD.

Brick Blows Burned in Spokane Falls. Disastrous Fire in Jersey City.

SPOKANE FALLS, January 25.—A fire broke out in the basement of the Green block, a two-story brick on Riverside avenue, at 11 o'clock tonight, and burned furiously for a time. At 12:30 a. m. the fire was under control, though the building is completely gutted. There were in the premises John Burke's dry goods store, the Washington Furniture Store and Bertrand's photograph gallery. The total loss to goods and buildings will probably amount to $41,000.

JERSEY CITY, January 24.—Fire broke out this evening in the cellar of a hardware store on Pavonia avenue. Just as the fireman had got a line of hose into the cellar two barrels of turpentine exploded, killing Chief Engineer H. Farrier and fatally injuring Hoseman McDonald while three others were painfully bruised and cut. Engine No. 3, while on the way to the fire was struck by a Pennsylvania train and Driver Dunn was instantly killed. The fire in the hardware store was subdued with slight loss.

CHARGED WITH BRIBERY.

Conscientious Legislators Refuse to be Caved Down the Bank.

ST. PAUL, January 24.—A Pioneer Press' Pierre, South Dakota, special says: At the afternoon session of the House, in voting on the Davidson County election contest, senatorial bribery charges were made.

Representative Converse announced he had been threatened with the defeat of the bill if he did not vote a certain way. Kelly stated he had been offered $1000 to vote for Moody for Senator. Hall said that he had been offered a bribe of $1000 by a prominent man to keep out of the caucus and could produce witnesses. The Committee on Bribery announced their reports would be ready next session and the first of the contesting independents was seated. The charges of bribery were referred to the committee.

Two ballots were taken today without change.

Shot Through the Body.

NAPA, Cal., January 24.—John Vaughn, a bartender, was shot tonight by J. W. Scott. A few days ago Vaughn threatened to shoot Scott. The two men met today and Scott asked Vaughn if he was not ready. Scott fired three shots and one of them entered Vaughn's breast just below the heart.

Preparing For a Sea War.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 24.—The revenue cutter Bear is being fitted for sea here and work on her is progressing rapidly. The most significant change that is being made is the strengthening of her spar deck, cutting port holes in the sides and putting down gun carriages for two four inch rifles.

Settlement of a Strike.

CHICAGO, January 24.—General Manager Tucker states that the strike on the Chicago & Erie road has been settled. The conference suggestions were ratified by the men and all except the discharged Scott resumed work this afternoon.

The Inter-Continental Railway.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Secretary Proctor has instructed Adjutant-General Kelton to select about ten young officers of the Engineer Corps, for duty in connection with the proposed inter-continental railway, as provided by the act creating an inter-continental railway commission.

Severe on Prize Fighters.

AUSTIN, Tex., January 24.—A bill passed the Senate today making it a felony, punishable by imprisonment not less than two nor more than five years, to fight a prize fight in the State. The bill will pass the House.
